

20AUT46 A Whole-School Approach to Teacher Well-Being Suitable for Primary teachers & SNAs

Well-being is now a priority in schools, more so than ever before. Schools do incredible work, day after day, to nurture children's well-being through creating a supportive and positive whole-school culture. Such a culture sends three powerful messages to children: You matter here. You belong here. You can succeed here.

This culture is created in so many different ways, and this webinar will provide practical suggestions and ideas to teachers on how to nurture and develop it at whole-school level.

This webinar will be facilitated by Fiona Forman. Fiona is the co-author of Weaving Well-Being, an SPHE and positive mental health programme for primary school children. Fiona is also a primary school teacher with over 30 years of classroom experience at all levels and a Well-Being and Positive Psychology facilitator and trainer. Fiona holds an M. Sc. in Applied Positive Psychology (MAPP) from The University of East London.
